DRAGGIE'S
JOURNEY
THROUGH DRAGONLAND

DRAGON

1965

DOWNS HIGH SCHOOL

DOWNS, KANSAS

THE JOURNEY BEGINS

"Hello there! I'm Draggie, the Downs High and Grade School mascot. I'm just ready to start my journey through the 1964 and 1965 school year in Dragonland. You're just in time! Wouldn't you like to join me?"

"This is my school! You know, the students and faculty really make me feel welcome here. In fact the whole town does. That's why I want to take you on a journey through MY school!"

cation begins here!"

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

"Boy, Downs has a great faculty! You know they even formed a band for a pep rally to boost the Dragons to victory. They sponsor clubs and activities besides having well-planned classes.

"Up-to-date!" That's DHS. They even have a guidance counselor.

"Mr. Irvin Myers loved Dragonland so much he came back to his alma mater to be superintendent."

Students of Downs High School:
It has been said that the great benefits to humanity do not always come from people with extraordinary ability, but often from people with ordinary ability and extraordinary effort and persistence.

I am confident our faculty has done well in helping to develop the necessary attitudes toward life and the skills and techniques necessary for success. We certainly wish the very best for each of you and hope you will have many pleasant memories of DHS.

Sincerely,
Irvin H. Myers

CLASSES

"Now I'd like to introduce to you my friends, the students of Dragon land. They are the backbone of the school."

"You know, I love all the students dearly. The only thing that mars my happiness is that the seniors must leave me. But to brighten my world, I just think of all the future students to enter the halls of DHS."

Thirteen of the "65" seniors completed their twelfth year of school together in 1965. To guide them through their last year the thirty-six seniors chose Leslie Streit as their president. Their other officers were Gwynne Arasmith, vice-president; Irva Burmeister, secretary; Judy Driggs, treasurer; and Barbara Brown, student council representative.

For four years the seniors of "65" have been outstanding scholars and leaders in DHS.

Their main projects for their senior year were selling magazines, the senior play, and the senior trip.

Their four years of hard work were rewarded on May 12 when they left on their senior trip to Colorado.

THIRTY-SIX SENIORS STEP OUT INTO THE WORLD!

"The big events to face the juniors this year were the junior play and the prom and banquet.

"To guide them through this year, they elected Jerome Streit president. Bill Benefiel was elected vice president; Linda Popen, secretary; Don Saunders, treasurer; and Steve Stuart, student council representative.

"These officers were kept very busy with the many activities that faced them."

SOPHOMORES

In their second year of high school, the sophomores became very active leaders in their school.

Edith Guhn led the class through the year as president. Terry Zimmer was vice-president; Donna Hughes, secretary; Norma Miller, treasurer; and Danny Krier, student council representative.

To raise money they sponsored a show at the local theater.

Their enthusiasm was also shown when their class sold the most yearbooks to win the yearbook contest.

Twelve sophomores also served at the junior-senior banquet.

The first thing the freshmen did as a class was select a slate of officers.

To lead them in their first year of high school, they chose Marsha VanderGiesen as their president. Tim Moore was elected Vice President; Kirby Mullen, secretary; Roger Nyhoff, treasurer; and Ann Lawson, student council representative.

These five students led their twenty-seven classmates through their first year at Downs High School.

THIRTY-TWO FRESHMEN ENTER

Miss Joan Stahl

Mr. Bobby Brilhart

Thirty-three green freshmen entered the halls of DHS this year. After being properly initiated by the seniors, they entered into the regular schedule of high school life.

The freshmen became active members of the organizations and music groups. To raise money, they sold decals and had food-stands.

ACTIVITIES

"Besides having an excellent academic program, my friends in Dragonland find time for extra activities.

"The year started off with football season followed by basketball, which were both a great success for the Dragons. The plays, homecoming, prom, and school parties all helped to make it a great year at DHS.

"In the halls of MY school every year develop musicians, athletes and leaders!"

STUCO, BACKBONE OF SCHOOL!

Dorothy registering to vote at election!

"For the first time DHS had a vigorous election for the Stuco officers at the first of the year.

"Everyone in high school joined a party. A rally was held before the election at which speeches and demonstrations were given.

"Darrell Miller was elected president; Jerry Reid, V. Pres.; Diana Pahls, secretary; and Evelyn Becker, treasurer."

Everyone campaigned!

STUCO SPONSORED TALENT SHOW FOR SCHOLARSHIP, BAND UNIFORMS

The Stuco was very busy this year setting policies for the school and sponsoring activities. They organized the Homecoming festivities and sponsored a Valentines dance. They also put on a talent show to raise money.

To promote safety, a month was designated safety month. It featured speech, essay and poster contests, and a safety queen.

Triple Trio performs at talent show.

OUR SMILING GIRL FROM ECUADOR

For the first time DHS had a foreign exchange student in 1964-1965.

I wish to express my sincere appreciation for the many kind acts shown me, an American Field Service Student. My stay in your town has been very pleasant. I wish to thank the local AFS Chapter for making it possible to come to the United States, and especially Downs, Kansas. I also wish to thank the organizations that helped make my trip possible.

I find your school system much different than it is in my country. I have enjoyed the many activities, the Junior-Senior Prom was wonderful. And the Senior sneak is a trip I shall never forget.

I want to thank my host parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Steinshouer, who have treated me as their own child, helped me learn the English language, prepared me for school, and did so many extra things to show the culture of America.

These months spent in Downs have been very happy, in fact I had the happiest Christmas, and birthday too.

For all the gifts, cards, and remembrances, I am very grateful to all.

I shall surely remember my friends through the friendship quilt that "Mom" Steinshouer sponsored.

I shall always remember my school year in good Old Downs High.

A very grateful thanks to everyone.

NEWLY FORMED FHA CHAPTER LOOKS 'TOWARD NEW HORIZONS'

Although the new FHA chapter at DHS was small, they were a very busy and active group. They held a doughnut sale to raise money early in the year. In the spring they held FHA week at school where their new uniforms were displayed. They attended district meetings and had regular meetings at school with interesting programs.

DRAGONETTES BOOST TEAM WITH HILARIOUS SKITS AND ENTHUSIASTIC CHEERING

Teachers back team!

Pamela helped the team???

Those Sophomore skits!

"The Dragonettes did their part in promoting the Dragons' athletic program, as they displayed good sportsmanship and were enthusiastic fans. Color was added by the group sitting in a section at the games.

"For the pep rallies, members prepared skits to boost the Dragon spirit at football and basketball games.

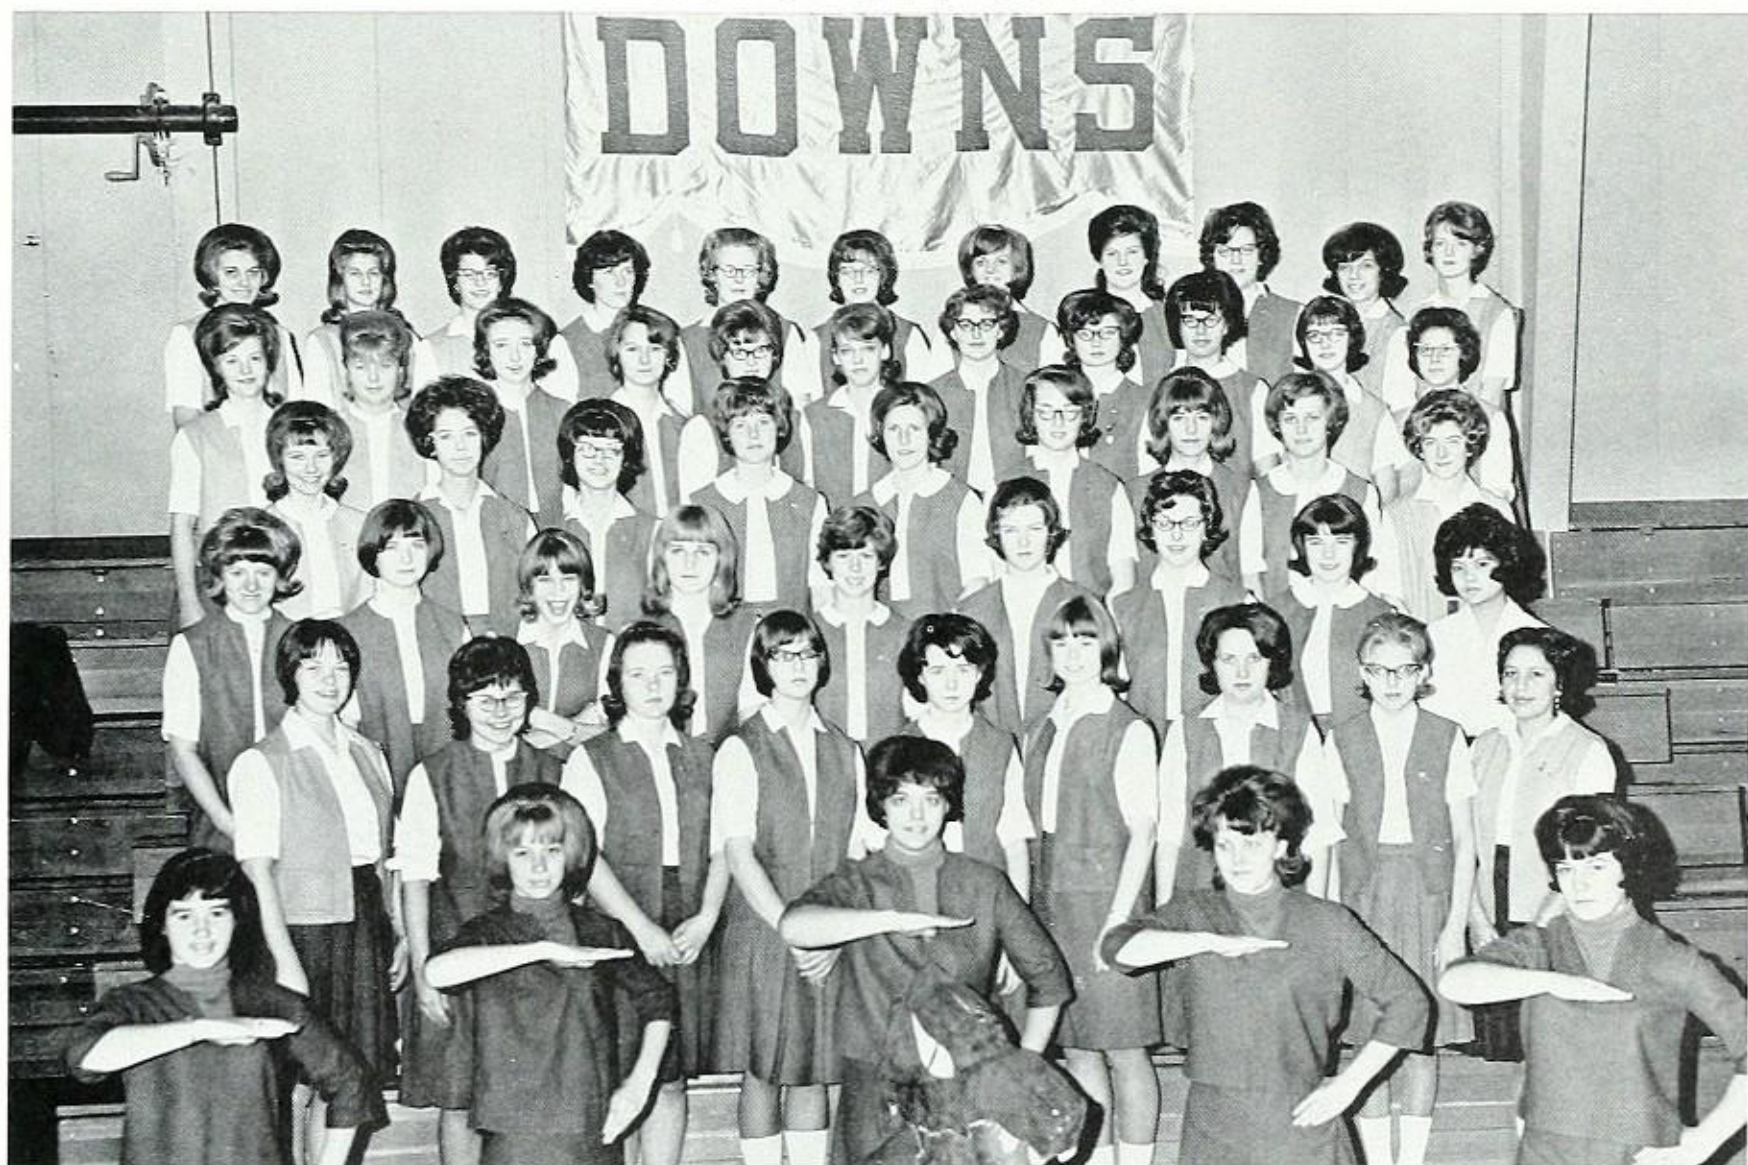

"Of course no club could function smoothly without good sponsors and hard working pep club officers. The club is sponsored by Margie Colburn and Joan Stahl."

OFFICERS

Dorothy Bohm, president; Shirley Hughes, vice president; Donalea Fink, secretary; Linda Poppen, treasurer; and Beverly Yenzner, publicity.

LETTERMEN PROMOTE SPORTSMANSHIP

President, Gayle Arasmith; V. President, Jim Reid; Secretary, Steve Stuart.

Rod's pass was rudely interrupted by Wilbur's pet mouse.

"JUNIORS PICK-A-DILLY"

Mad mortician is caught by Rod and his sidekick.

Downs High School auditorium was the scene of the Junior Play, November 19 and 20. "Pick-A-Dilly", written by Jay Tobias, was an exciting comedy thriller packed with laughs. It seemed Rod Benedict would inherit a fortune from his late uncle providing he married one of the three Dilly sisters-- April Violet, May Lilly, or June Rose.

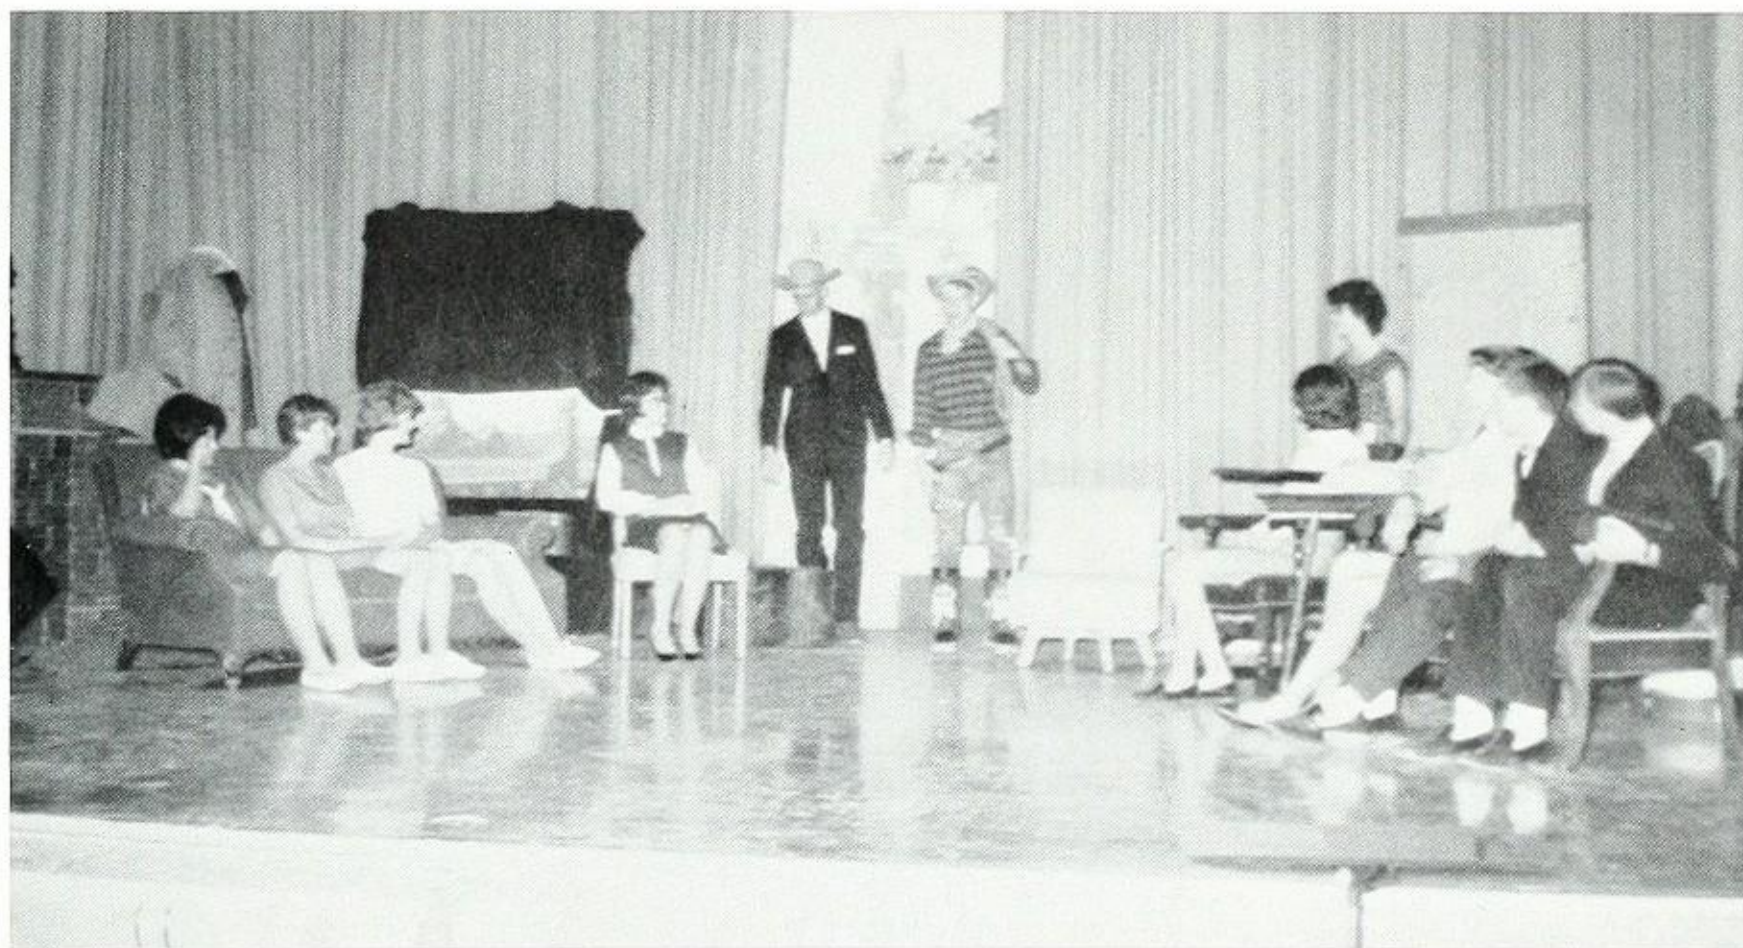

Now Rod didn't want to settle down to married bliss until he was at least thirty, so he disguised himself as an illiterate. From there on riotous situations occur. The climax came when a mad mortician, supposedly escaped from a mental hospital, started to embalm the live ones.

The cast was:

Susan Clark	- - - -	Laurie Finley
Amanda Strong	- - - -	Donalea Fink
Purina Hogg	- - - -	Patty Gates
Arvilla Garvey	- - - -	Zoe Sutter
Otis Garvey	- - - -	LeWayne Becker
Wilber	- - - -	Ronnie Rous
Opal Dilly	- - - -	Linda Poppen
June Rose	- - - -	Sherry Watts
May Lilly	- - - -	Linda Mayers
April Violet	- - - -	Sherry Grauer
Thadd Blecker	- - - -	Don Walter
Rod Benedict	- - - -	Steve Stuart
Tex Larabee	- - - -	Don Becker
Jack Purcell	- - - -	Jerold Reid
Old Betsy	- - - -	Dorothy Bohm
Azariah Coffin	- - - -	Don Saunders

Everyone had a special girl.

The plot thickens as all the guests arrive.

"You're a beast, you disgust me!"

"I want to try this thing."

"Down and in. That's how I'd stab a taller man."

"Reasonable Doubt?!?"

SENIORS PRESENT DRAMA

"I sat on the edge of my chair all through the Senior Play. Instead of the usual comedy play, the seniors decided to tackle a courtroom drama!"

The cast consisted of:

Guard - - - - -	Charles Oviatt
Foreman - - - - -	Brent Domoney
Juror Two - - - - -	Jennifer Rotman
Three - - - - -	Don Wagner
Four - - - - -	Barbara Brown
Five - - - - -	Irva Kay Burmeister
Six - - - - -	Sandra Murrow
Seven - - - - -	Gayle AraSmith
Eight - - - - -	Darrell Miller
Nine - - - - -	Janice Wiersma
Ten - - - - -	Carolyn Reich
Eleven - - - - -	Dianna Pahls
Twelve - - - - -	Leslie Streit

"The scene was the jury room and showed the discussions and frustrations that the jury went through in deciding the guilt of a nineteen year old boy. In the beginning there seemed to be no doubt to the boy's guilt, but as the play progressed many things pointed to reasonable doubt. In the end the jury decided on a 'reasonable doubt' verdict."

"Well, I hope this grey washes out!"

TWELVE ANGRY JURISTS

Queen, Gwynne Arasmith; King Gayle Arasmith; Attendants, Barbara Brown, Brent Domoney, Dianna Pahls, Leslie Streit, Irva Burmeister, Dee Dougherty, Carolyn Ouderkirk, and Darrell Miller.

Seniors decorate gym!

'Camelot' was the theme for Homecoming "64". The day began with an assembly in the morning, where Gwynne and Gayle Arasmith were presented as king and queen.

In the afternoon, there was a parade downtown and a pep rally. Before the game the queen and her attendants were presented. The girls rode in antique cars.

After the game, the coronation and dance were in the gym. First-graders Lisa Dougherty and John Myers acted as crown bearers.

DRAGONS ALTER DHS 15 YEAR HISTORY

Dragons at a scrimmage.

"This is the Dragon football team that won our school a fabulous second place trophy, the first football trophy in 15 years, which is now proudly displayed among the 3 other football trophies won in the history of DHS.

"And that's not surprising as you can see from their record:"

THE DOWNS LIONS

wish to congratulate the graduating class of 1965 for being outstanding in academics and activities.

We look forward to having people such as you representing our community.

We challenge students in the future to do as well.
